K-3 5 PLUS

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of Policy IHCG is to provide additional instructional ~~days~~ time for students enrolled in ~~early~~ grades K-5 ~~in order to~~ provide support for academic skill development ~~narrow the achievement gap.~~

II. BACKGROUND

A. The Board of Education recognizes that additional instructional time/days support ~~high poverty public schools or low performing schools~~ in minimizing the learning gaps, ~~such as the readiness gap, attendance gap and the “summer slide.”~~ Adding days/time to the regular school year provides teachers with additional opportunities to fully implement the core curriculum.

~~B.~~ The purpose of the K-~~53~~ Plus program is to demonstrate that increased time in kindergarten through ~~fifth~~ third grade provides the opportunity for intervention and focused instruction for students. ~~narrows the achievement gap between disadvantaged students and other students. K-3 Plus extends the school year for kindergarten through third grade students by providing 25 additional instructional days before school starts.~~

B.

III. DEFINITIONS

- ~~1. “High poverty public school” means a public school in which 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or reduced priced meals.~~
- ~~2. “Readiness Gap” means children from low income families begin school behind their peers.~~
- ~~3. “The Attendance Gap” means children from low income families miss many days of school, which causes gaps in learning.~~
- ~~4. “Summer Slide” means children lose academic progress over the summer months.~~
